2.1.3 OUR GRASS

SUPERCOURT

Regular game all over the court.

It stands out for the textured effect of its filaments, which provides a greater capacity for rotational and longitudinal traction (grip), increasing grip and therefore, improving safety and performance on the move.

It hardly requires any stabilizing sand.

MONOFILAMENT

It's a more resistance grass with a greater vertical memory, which makes it return to its original shape after impacts.

It's more durable grass than fibrillated grass, which with a proper maintenance, it can give us, for a long period of time, high performance in the game.
